

I / We agree that.....

1. I / We shall protect the chooks from all predators including dogs, cats, and foxes (and over excited children). Accidental death of a chook shall incur a $30 fee.

2. BookAChook shall be notified immediately if a chook is harmed or injured, seems in any way unwell, or has become 'broody'.

(In the case of a 'broody' we'll happily swap you a more 'social' chook!)

3. Only adults shall be permitted to lift the lids on the coops and that at least two adults are required to move a coop.

4. I / We shall be liable for any/all damages to said coop.

5. BookAChook shall not be held liable for any injuries caused by 'chook or coop'.

6. BookAChook will deliver two healthy chooks of egg laying age, but will not guarantee they will lay an egg everyday.

Pekins lay every second day at the best of time, but we do firmly believe they are the most suitable breed for children and living in suburbia.

Lots of factors will influence their laying, such as the time of year and their happiness and wellbeing.

Just like people really.....They need love to flourish ♥

7. I / We shall provide the chooks with FRESH food and water everyday and love them as if they were our own. We shall feed them foods as recommended by BookAChook, such as the provided seeds, along with fresh fruit and vegetables, and fresh leftovers.

In keeping with BookAChook's chook feeding philosophy as outlined on the website we shall not feed the chooks any animal products such as meat, milk and cheese.

BookAChook aims to, ' make people happy with the love of a chook'

And as such, we aim to keep our prices affordable.

We will endeavor to keep the required bond to a minimum, but will require a current photo ID upon delivery of the rental package.
